

Mrs. Huelskamp
Composition II

I would like to welcome you to Composition II. There are many exciting opportunities that will be available to you this year. I look forward to exploring along with all of you.

Contact Information

becky.huelskamp@usd332.com

Composition Book

Students are expected to bring their composition books to class every day. The comp book will function as a note taking device and a resource.

Daily Work

Students will read and take notes over literature. In addition, students in Composition II will participate in daily writing activities and discussion. Students will review the writing process and complete warm-up exercises in grammar, writing, and editing.

Required Papers

Students will be required to write papers, using the writing process:

- Character Analysis
- Point-of-View Analysis
- Setting Analysis
- Theme Analysis
- Research Paper

Exams

Students will take two writing exams: a midterm and a final.

Grade Weighting

Papers - 65%

Daily Work – 15%

Exams – 20%
