

Mrs. Huelskamp
Composition I

I would like to welcome you to Composition I. There are many exciting opportunities that will be available to you this year. I look forward to exploring along with all of you.

Contact Information

becky.huelskamp@usd332.com

Composition Book

Students are expected to bring their composition books to class every day. The comp book will function as a note taking device and a resource.

Textbook

Student's Book of College English: Rhetoric, Reader, Research Guide, and Handbook; 14th Edition

Daily Work

Students will read and take notes over the textbook. In addition, students in Composition I will participate in daily writing activities and discussion. Students will review the writing process and complete warm-up exercises in grammar, writing, and editing.

Required Papers

Students will be required to write papers, using the writing process:

- Descriptive Paper
- Process Paper
- Comparison and Contrast Paper
- Cause and Effect Paper
- Definition Paper
- Argumentative Paper

Exams

Students will take two writing exams: a midterm and a final.

Grade Weighting

Papers - 65%
Library Skills and Daily Work – 25%
Exams – 10%
